Attn: Local Business Owner/Manager
Community Organization Leader
Concerned East Bay / Contra Costa County Area Neighbor

Dear Sir or Madam:

The East Bay Convoy of Hope, in partnership with local businesses, community organizations and Calvary Temple Church, will be hosting an area wide day of compassionate outreach on Saturday, September 15, 2007. This outreach will be held at the Rio Vista Elementary School located at 611 Pacifica Avenue in Bay Point, California from 10:00AM – 2:00PM. It will serve as a message of hope for between 5,000 – 6,000 primarily low income residents of the East Bay / Contra Costa County area by delivering:

- over 40,000 pounds of free groceries
- health screenings
- job fair opportunities
- haircuts
- games and activities for children
- live entertainment
- and much more

The East Bay Convoy of Hope is affiliated with the national Convoy of Hope®, which is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Springfield, Missouri (www.ConvoyOfHope.com). Convoy of Hope® serves in the United States and around the world by partnering with local churches, businesses, and community organizations to provide resources and training assistance in order to help support and strengthen local communities.

The Easy Bay Convoy of Hope is currently approaching the Contra Costa County business community for both financial, as well as, goods and services assistance in this endeavor. (Please note that all goods and services, which are donated locally, are provided to the outreach guests free of charge.)
